Who are the Luciferian Perpetrators, and What Should Christians Know?

Sixbert SANGWA • September 06, 2024

The forces of evil, hidden in plain sight, have long sought to manipulate the world for their sinister agenda. In "Illuminati Agenda 21: The Luciferian Plan to Destroy Creation," we see the term Luciferian perpetrators used to identify the key figures and secret societies at the heart of this destructive agenda. Christians are called to be vigilant and discerning, especially as the battle between good and evil intensifies. In this article, we will explore who these perpetrators are, the methods they use, and why it is critical for Christians to recognize their work in today's world.

The term "Luciferian" refers to those who worship Lucifer, the fallen angel who defied God and was cast out of heaven. These individuals, or secret societies, claim to possess hidden knowledge or wisdom, which they believe gives them power over the masses. According to the Bible, Lucifer's rebellion was based on pride and the desire to be like God (Isaiah 14:12-15). This same spirit of pride and self-worship permeates the Luciferian agenda today, as its proponents seek to dominate and control all aspects of human life.

In Illuminati Agenda 21, the Luciferian perpetrators are described as being behind many global institutions and movements that promote materialism, division, and the enslavement of mankind. They reject God's creation and the natural order, preferring instead to twist and manipulate the truth for their own gain. Their ultimate goal is to bring about a New World Order—a global system where they hold absolute power over humanity.

The Agenda identifies several groups as being central to this Luciferian plot. The Illuminati, Freemasons, and other secret societies are at the core of this agenda. These groups, originating from ancient civilizations such as Sumeria and Egypt, have evolved into modern organizations that wield immense political, financial, and social power. The Rothschild family, a prominent banking dynasty, is highlighted as a major player in this conspiracy. Their control over global financial systems, through institutions such as the Bank of International Settlements, allows them to influence governments, corporations, and even religious institutions (Illuminati Agenda 21).

Jesus warns us about the dangers of hidden agendas, stating, "Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravaging wolves" (Matthew 7:15). This perfectly describes the Luciferian perpetrators who hide behind seemingly benevolent causes while advancing their darker goals. For example, many of the world's financial elites claim to promote humanitarian efforts, yet their actions often lead to further oppression, war, and poverty.

One of the most insidious aspects of the Luciferian agenda is the way it promotes division and materialism. The Bible teaches that we are all one in Christ (Galatians 3:28), but the Luciferian perpetrators seek to divide humanity along lines of race, class, and religion. This division creates conflict and chaos, which they then exploit to consolidate their power. The concept of Order out of Chaos is a central tenet of Freemasonry, where societal upheaval is orchestrated to justify the imposition of new, more authoritarian control structures (Illuminati Agenda 21).

Materialism is another tool used by the Luciferians. By promoting a culture that values wealth, fame, and physical possessions above all else, they lead people away from God's truth and into spiritual bondage. Jesus cautions against this in Matthew 6:24: "No one can serve two masters, since either he will hate one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money" .

Through control of the global banking system, entertainment industry, and political structures, the Luciferian perpetrators have managed to create a society where success is measured by material gain rather than spiritual growth. Christians must be aware of this deception and focus on building treasures in heaven rather than on earth.

At its core, the Luciferian agenda is a spiritual battle between good and evil. Ephesians 6:12 reminds us, "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this darkness, against evil, spiritual forces in the heavens". The Luciferians work tirelessly to obscure the truth of God's Word, replacing it with lies and false doctrines. They promote the idea that humanity can become like gods, much like Satan tempted Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden.
This battle for control of human souls is waged through subtle manipulation, media control, and psychological warfare. In Illuminati Agenda 21, it is explained how these secret societies use mind control techniques, including propaganda and fear, to keep the masses enslaved to their systems of control.

The first step in combating this evil is awareness. As Paul wrote in 2 Corinthians 2:11, "so that we may not be taken advantage of by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes". Understanding the tactics and strategies of the Luciferian perpetrators allows us to stand firm in our faith and resist their influence.
Prayer and spiritual discernment are also essential weapons in this battle. The Bible urges us to "pray without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17) and to ask God for wisdom. The Holy Spirit gives us the ability to discern truth from deception, enabling us to reject the lies of the enemy and follow the path of righteousness.

Finally, Christians must live out their faith in a way that reflects God's love and truth. We are called to be "the light of the world" (Matthew 5:14), and our actions should shine as a beacon of hope in a world increasingly darkened by the forces of evil. By living according to God's commandments, loving one another, and spreading the gospel, we counter the lies of the Luciferian agenda with the truth of Jesus Christ.

In brief, the Luciferian perpetrators, as outlined in Illuminati Agenda 21, represent a significant spiritual danger to humanity. Their methods of control through division, materialism, and psychological manipulation are designed to lead people away from God and into spiritual bondage. As Christians, we are called to be vigilant, discerning, and prayerful, recognizing the signs of deception and standing firm in our faith. The battle between good and evil is intensifying, but with God's help, we can overcome the darkness and remain steadfast in the light of Christ.
